

Some men show pedigrees

IN HIS VALUABLE TWO-VOLUME THE DOG BOOK of 1903-04, James Watson describes quite scathingly those in the world of purebred dogs who fail to realize that a pedigree is only a piece of paper. He records a conversation with the great Irish Terrier breeder of 100 years ago, William Graham, who cast his eye over a show entry of his time and declared, "Some men show pedigrees; I show dogs and take the prizes." 🐾

BY COL. HAWTHORNTON, M.S.
PHOTO COURTESY OF THE DOG BOOKS